- ↓ Ở đâu ? Ở đâu ? có sự diệu kỳ
Ta xé vãi chôn ta để may cờ chiến thắng
Những vết thương thành những lá quân kỳ
Ta nấu xích xiềng ta làm súng đạn
Ở đâu ? Ở đâu ? Ở đất anh hùng
Người ngã xuống tủa máu mình mà đứng dậy

- S Where ? Where there are miracles
We tore up our shrouds
To weave victorious banners
We tore away our wounds
To draw our insignas
We melt our chains
To cast guns and bullets ?
Where ?
In this Land of Heros
The fallen lean on their own blood
And stand up !

In the struggle for freedom and independence of the South Vietnamese people, a new literature and art have come into being ^{in the} as early ~~as~~ ^{as} nineteenth century ^{despite} ~~inspite~~ of all material ^{is} hardships. Literature and art ~~here~~ are not mere ~~epi~~ ^{na}phenomena, but they are the essence of the struggle; people who fight need poems, novels, films and songs as well as arms and food. Viet-Nam, especially South Viet-Nam is always represented by destroyed villages or napalmed children. This is not ^a at all complete ~~picture~~. There are also ^{pictures} ~~picures~~ of children and grown-ups singing and dance, recite ^{poems}, stage ^{plays}, visits ^{exhibitions} of photos or paintings in the liberated zone.

D

Today, we would like to ^{dedicate this} ~~introduce to you a~~ special program ^{to for the patriotic pro poetry of South Viet-Nam} ~~on Truong Dinh, a poet and a fighter~~ during the last 115 years under the foreign invasions. ~~against the French colonialists during the second half of the nineteenth century.~~

S

The year 1859 saw the first French troops launch attacks on Saigon, and rapidly defeat the Vietnamese royal army. The King and high dignitaries of the Court of Hue swiftly made "peace", and by the treaty of 1862, they surrendered to France three eastern provinces of South Viet-Nam. The South Vietnamese people saw that the 1862 treaty was but a pause for the French colonialists to digest the first conquests and prepare for others. They exhorted the mandarin Truong Dinh to disobey the King and take up leadership of the insurgent movement against the aggressors. As a leader of a patriotic movement, Truong Dinh issues an appeal as follows:

....

S All rivers have their sources,
 All trees have roots,
 Every ~~man~~^{one} is born with body and limbs,
 Why deny one's father and one's king ?
 Every ~~man~~^{one} is born with home and family,
 Why fail in one's duty as son and subject ?

D Why have ears and not hear, have eyes and not see ?
 Where are our ~~forefathers~~^{ancestors} ? Where are our ancestors' graves ?
 Why have hearts and not feel, have bowels and not suffer ?
 Our land is violated, our people are in torment ?

S How can it ^{run} You are running after riches and wealth,
 While westerners come to ravish wives and kill husbands,
 How can it ^{run} You are running after gold and money
 While westerners come to skin and shear our people.
 How many of us have been insulted, killed ?
 How many have been hanged, tortured ?
 Words fail us to voice our anger.

D No one can avoid death, but to die for one's ~~fatherland~~^{home} is glory.
 Everyone certainly wants to live,
 But let's live by holding high the banner of struggle.

D † Toward the French colonialists, Truong Dinh was indomitable. The proclamation which he had posted up along the banks of rivers said this to the French:

S "Losing our King's Government, we are as sad as a child who has lost ^{its} ~~his~~ parents. Your country belongs to the Western seas, ours to the Eastern seas...

Gratefulness, we owe to our King. We will avenge the wrong done ^{our children} ~~to him~~ and will die for ^{them} ~~him~~. If you persist in bringing us fire and flames, the disorder will last forever, but we are acting according to Heaven's Law and our cause will triumph in the end. If you want peace, give back the territory. We are fighting for this aims.

D ...We respect your valour, but we fear Heaven more than your power. We swear to fight on to the end without respite. When we don't have weapons, we will arm our soldiers with branches. How can you live among us ?"

➤ Nguyễn Đình Chiểu, a blind poet, highlighted the popular character of the Resistance against the French, the incomparable heroism of its fighters who are simple peasants becoming soldiers for love of the ~~Fatherland~~ ^{home land.}

S "They were not soldiers who made war their occupation; simple villagers, for Love of the ~~Fatherland~~ ^{home land}, they became volunteers.. They did not wait until they mastered the eighteen combat skills; they did not ask to be taught the ninety battle positions. They had pieces of coarse cloth as uniforms and asked neither for cartridge-bags nor for powder-flasks; they were armed only with bamboo pikes and demanded neither combat knives nor battle helmets... Their officers did not have to order drum-beats for them to attack the enemy; by themselves they broke through the fences and rushed into the enemy posts as if the enemy were not there; fearing neither cannon-balls nor bullets, they broke through the gates and assaulted enemy posts, at the risk of their lives."

➤ Among the scholars who were leaders of patriotic movements during the French rule, let us mention particularly Nguyễn Hữu Huân. Captured, he remained strong before all threats and tortures, and was finally beheaded in 1875 by the French. Here are some of his verses:

S For our ^{homes} ~~Fatherland~~, for our family,
It does not matter if we must endure wind and rain.

Heavy are the duty common to all
Shame to those who do not pay their debt as human beings

....

I accept victory or defeat as Heaven imposes them on me,
Damned the traitors who mock at my loyalty !

D Remarkable was the peasant patriot Nguyen Trung Truc.
He cried out before falling under the bullets of the French firing squad:

"As long as grass grows in this country,
there will be people to fight the aggressors."

We must especially mention the anonymous phú (rhymed prose) entitled "When the invaders come, women also fight." Here are some extracts: excerpts

Willows and peach blossoms bloom on the path of war.
Formerly they sew and embroidered in the shadows of their husbands,
Now, here they are, sword and shield in hands, competing with all.
Let us praise their courage, whatever their skill may be.

Villains, take care lest your heads should fall,
don't rely too much on your weapons.

Sisters, look at them, aren't they true heroines ?

They ride on horses, brandish banners, row boats, and load guns,

They destroy fortresses, climb up ramparts, force their ways through fences and gates.

What does it matter, victory or defeat ?

There is a share of each for everyone.

What does it matter, to die or to live ?

Our choice has been made.

Let it be known that they have women's bodies but soldiers' hearts;

That women, they are none the less strategists;

And that they are both good at keeping houses and conducting military operations.

⊕ And last but not least, we come to the poetry of South
Viet-Nam during the recent years. This is a poem of Thenh Hai, a guerilla fighter, and he calls his poem
"The Song of Fighters"

⊗ "They rob us our land and put it under their ploughs,
They raze our home and build military posts,
Crying will not dissipate our anger,

THE STRIKE AT FOLSOM PRISONS MAXIMUM SECURITY WING ENDED NOVEMBER
FOURTEENTH, A MONTH AFTER IT BEGAN....STRIKING PRISONERS ISSUED A LIST OF DEMANDS LAST MONTH CALLING FOR OPEN CORRESPONDENCE RIGHTS, VISITING PRIVILEGES, AN END TO ADMINISTRATIVE VIOLENCE, AND SANITARY FOOD AND MEDICAL CONDITIONS....MOST OF THE 130 MEN IN THE MAXIMUM SECURITY WING
REFUSED TO SHAVE OR EAT PRISON MADE FOOD DURING THE STRIKE. #####

SINCE THE STRIKE FOLSOM HAS ABANDONED THE USE OF CORRESPONDENCE FORMS, WHICH HAD TO BE FILLED OUT BY PEOPLE CORRESPONDING WITH PRISONERS.

NOW, IT IS ALLEGEDLY POSSIBLE TO COMMUNICATE WITH PRISONERS WITHOUT PRIOR APPROVAL FROM THE WARDEN....THIS BY NO MEANS PREVENTS FOLSOM AUTHORITIES FROM CUTTING OFF CORRESPONDENCE....KPFA REPORTER MARK SHWARTZ IS NO LONGER
ALLOWED TO WRITE ANY PRISONERS IN FOLSOM BECAUSE ACCORDING TO PRISON OFFICIALS HE IS "NOT A CONSTRUCTIVE INFLUENCE ON THE INMATES"AND ACCORDING TO ONE FOLSOM GUARD HIS "INTENT IS CALCULATED TO ENCOURAGE INMATES TO ENGAGE IN ACTIVITIES WHICH VIOLATE INSTITUTIONAL RULES AND ARE GENERALLY DISRUPTIVE TO THE INSTITUTION."

OTHER PRISONER DEMANDS HAVE STILL NOT BEEN MET...VISITATION IS STILL RESTRICTED, AND NO CHANGES IN FOOD OR MEDICAL SERVICES HAVE BEEN UNDERTAKEN.

ACCORDING TO A REPORT ISSUED BY STATE ASSEMBLYMAN WALTER KARABIAN ### A MONTH
BEFORE THE STRIKE AT FOLSOM " THE MEDICAL DEPARTMENT AT FOLSOM IS SHOCKINGLY
INADEQUATE, THE MEALS ARE ALWAYS COLD AND HEAVILY DEPENDENT ON STARCHES:

PRISONERS CLAIMED THAT A GREAT DEAL OF TENSION WAS GENERATED ON THE EXERCISE
YARD BY GUARDS WHO WERE OVERLY ZEALOUS ### IN SETTLING PROBLEMS WITH BIRDSHOT.

AND -
AS ONE PRISONER WROTE RECENTLY....IT WILL TAKE UNIFIED ACTIONS SIMILAR TO THE ADJUSTMENT CENTER STRIKE TO MAKE THE PUBLIC BEGIN TO TAKE SERIOUSLY
THE FINDINGS OF SENATOR KARABIAN AND OTHER OBSERVERS.
