Some charges dropped

Attica trials continue

The prosecution has unexpectedly dropped charges of kidnap and illegal imprisonment against Attica defendants Ruiz Quintana, John (Roc) Mitchell, Michael (Jaja) Phillips and Robert Dugarm.

The four were indicted in December 1972 on these charges—dropped earlier this month for "lack of evidence"—along with charges of assault and coercion of guards during the 1971 Attica prison rebellion. The latter charges remain.

Defense lawyers Margaret Barnham and Anthony Walsh castigated the prosecution for not dropping the charges earlier, since the prosecution knew for years that it lacked evidence.

A jury of seven women and five men, one of whom is Black, has been selected for the murder trial of Bernard (Shango) Stroble. Along with four others who have separate trials scheduled, he is charged with the kidnap and murder of two fellow Attica inmates during the prison rebellion. The trial ~~was scheduled to start~~ ^{started} on May 20th.

Shango in his opening statement explained to the jury that no matter how fair they might try to be, the overall circumstances of the prosecution, from the coercion of witnesses to the $10 million spent by the attorney general on Attica cases, make it impossible for him to get a fair trial. Addressing the jury in personal tones, Shango told them "We speak of fairness. Sometimes euphemistically simply because we like to think that we can be fair. But today we are here to try to make a fair trial based on, in my judgment, an unfair indictment, in which we intend to show you how these indictments are unfair. So how fair can we be at this point? Can we reach the principal of fairness at this point in this particular trial? I question this very seriously ... I wanted to explain to each of you individually but I will do so collectively as to why we made a determination that each of the jurors could possibly be fair ... We saw qualities that would lead us to believe in your objectivity and fairness. Primarily this was our point--we tried to get people who were intelligent and perceptive because of the complexities involved in this case. Three indictments create a situation where we would have to have someone who could sit on this jury who we think can weigh the evidence

Approximately fifty supporters gathered in protest on April 21st, in front of the capitol building in Albany, ^{Ny} in demand of the immediate release of ^{Black P.R. revolutionary} Martin Sostre and a commutation of his sentence. ~~The demonstrators were mostly from Plattsburgh, Potsdam, Syracuse, Albany and New York city areas.~~ Some of the demonstrators were ^{trying to see} seeking to visit with ~~Judge~~ Gribitz, ^{Ny} ~~counsel to~~ Governor Hugh Carey. Carey had recently ^{met} visited with Amnesty International delegates who listed Sostre as one of the political prisoners they support.

Sostre is presently in Jefferson County, ^{Ny} jail awaiting sentencing scheduled for June 3rd, for a recent February 1975 conviction of assaulting three prison guards at Clinton prison. ~~At 10:30 a.m., motions will be heard in Clinton County court in Plattsburgh. WASHINGTON — ~~Activist Angela Davis joined about 3,000~~ ~~people demonstrated to in Washington in support of~~

 "Wilmington 10..."

The 10 defendants - nine black men including the Rev. Ben Chavis, and one white woman - will ask the U.S. Supreme Court to reverse their convictions on arson and conspiracy charges in the fire-bombing of a store in Wilmington, North Carolina

The fire occurred during a period of racial tension in that coastal North Carolina city in 1971.

Although the rally was organized to express support for Chavis and the other Wilmington defendants, the marchers also shouted their support for defendants in other cases.

Joan Little, a 21-year-old black woman charged with the ~~icepick~~ ~~slaying of a Beaufort County, N.C., jailer, was also a part of the~~ demonstration. Miss Little says she defended herself against the jailer when he tried to rape her.

 Miss Davis said the protesters were serving notice that the struggle for a reversal. She said,

Other prisoners the demonstrators said they supported include the

A MAJOR CRISIS HAS BEEN GOING ON IN PORTUGAL ITSELF, WITH THE SOCIALIST PARTY BOYCOTTING THE MILITARY GOVERNMENT IN PROTEST OF INCREASING STRENGTH OF COMMUNIST PARTY FORCES. TANZANIA HAS SO FAR REFUSED THE DEMANDS AND VARIOUS KINDS OF BEHIND THE

MOBUTU WAS DIRECTLY IMPLICATED IN THE MURDER OF PATRICE LUMUMBA, THE LEADER

IMPLICATED IN A NUMBER OF ASSASSINATIONS AND ASSASSINATION PLOTS. NEW

REVELATIONS ARE NOW COMING OUT ABOUT A NUMBER OF PLOTS AGAINST FIDEL CASTRO,

SOME OF THEM AT THE DIRECT ORDERS OF THE US PRESIDENCY, OTHERS IN DIRECT

WORKING RELATIONSHIP WITH MAFIA FIGURES. RETIRED MAJOR GENERAL EDWARD LANSDALE,

ARCHITECT OF US ~~WAR~~ COUNTERINSURGENCY IN VIETNAM, HAS ADMITTED THAT, ON

ORDERS FROM PRESIDENT KENNEDY, HE DEVELOPED PLANS FOR THE ASSASSINATION OF

FIDEL. A GREAT DEAL MORE OF THIS IS LURKING AROUND, HOW MUCH OF IT WILL

COME OUT IS NOT CLEAR, AND MIXED IN WITH IT ~~IS~~ ^{possible} IS THE REOPENING OF THE

INVESTIGATION OF JFK'S ASSASSINATION. THE CLAIM BY THE CIA THAT COVERT ACTIVITIES

THE NEWS ABOUT PLOTS AGAINST ~~IT~~ ^{CUBA} IT SHOULD BE NOTED ~~THAT~~ THAT IT IS A TRIBUTE

participation in the 1969 bombings of four defense towers in Colorado. The towers supplied electricity to Coors Porcelain, a company which manufactured all of the missile-nose cone and most of the armor for the helicopters used in Vietnam.

If found guilty of these charges, Cameron may face more than 100 years in prison, a depressing irony in the face of Nixon's recent pardon for the crimes he committed against the American people, let alone the destruction and mutilation of an entire country in Southeast Asia.

I am presently trying to get a legal defense fund going for Cameron. The process is new to me; the prices are high and I know it's going to be difficult to raise the money we need to assure him the legal aid he deserves. Therefore, I am asking all my comrades in the struggle for any donations and all information that might be helpful in raising funds.

Cameron's trial will be political from start to finish. It is an opportunity for people all over the country to express their support of the anti-imperialist movement. The war in Southeast Asia is not over! The people responsible for the deaths of thousands of innocent Vietnamese still run our country, living comfortable and free. THEY are the guilty ones, and yet no one will do time for the crimes committed against the people of Vietnam and Cambodia. Please help me speak out against the contradictions of our country's political and legal systems. Help free Cameron Bishop!
